Constitution of India

No. MCE 1091/(5)/Viniyam,-In exercise of the powers conferred by article 166 of the Constitution of India, the Government of Maharashtra is hereby pleased to make the following rules further to amend the Maharashtra Contingent Expenditure Rules, 1965 namely :-

1. These rules may be called the Maharashtra Contingent Expenditure Amendment Rules, 1991.
2. In Maharashtra Contingent Expenditure Rules, 1965 in Appendix VI, for rule 2, the following shall be substituted, namely :-

"Rule 2.-The purchases shall ordinarily be made after inviting public tenders. When the value of the goods proposed to be purchased is Rs. 50,000 or over, the tender notice shall be published in the weekly bulletin as a supplement to Part-II of the Maharashtra Government Gazette. The purchases of article or group of articles costing up to Rs. 500 on each occasion may be made without inviting the tender or quotations. Such tenders or quotations need not also be invited for such purchases costing upto Rs. 1,000 on such occasion if, in the opinion of the competent authority, it is not possible to follow the procedure prescribed in this Appendix. In case of smaller orders, that is for amounts less than Rs. 50]000 enquiries shall be addressed to all the concerns on the approved list of the Central Stores Purchases Organisation, except where the amount of the order is below Rs. 1,000. Any departure from the procedure laid down here, shall be made only with the Personal knowledge of the Central Stores Purchase Officer and for reasons to be recorded by him. The tenders shall be invited subject to a condition that supply shall be made in India for payment in rupees in India and that no tender which fails to comply with this condition shall be accepted".

By order and in the name of the Government of Maharashtra,

P. L. Sawai,
Under Secretary to Government
